The Mission of Le Penseur Youth & Family Services

Le Penseur is considered a leader in the provision of youth and family services in the city of Chicago. Our name Le Penseur, which means "the thinker" in French has been significant to our growth in leadership status. Our staff, board and volunteers are dedicated...always thinking of innovative ways to bring quality and effective services to our program participants and to the communities we serve.

We offer general education, employment and training, and health education programs for youth and adults.

The mission of Le Penseur Youth & Family Services, Inc. is to serve individuals who need assistance in maintaining or achieving their full potential for self-direction and independence. We employ professionals to develop and implement programs that emphasize the connection between healthy youth, families and healthy communities.
